Garfield County Sheriff's Office Now Offers Sex Offender Website

August 25, 2011

Garfield County, Colorado: The Garfield County Sheriff's Office has recently signed an agreement with the Douglas County Sheriff's Office to be added to the Unified Sex Offender Registry website. The website was initially designed by the Douglas County Sheriff's Office and now includes several law enforcement agencies throughout Colorado. These agencies have come together to create a resource site of registered sex offenders living in their jurisdictions.

The link to the Unified Sex Offender Registry website is accessible through the Garfield County Sheriff's Office, Crime Stoppers of Garfield County and the Garfield County Public Information websites. The purpose of the Unified Sex Offender Registry website is to create a safer, more knowledgeable community and provide support for the citizens of Colorado. The sex offenders listed under the Garfield County Sheriff's Office are registered in unincorporated Garfield County and do not include the local municipalities.

For more information, please visit the Unified Sex Offender Registry website at <http://apps.douglas.co.us/apps/soso/initPublicOffenderSearch.do>.
