Media Release: 1.11. 24 - El Jebel Resident Henry David Twitchell Missing

The Eagle County Sheriff's Office as well as Rio Blanco County and Garfield County Sheriff's Offices are working together to locate Henry David Twitchell, a resident of El Jebel who was last seen in Carbondale, CO on Thursday, January 4.

Twitchell's vehicle was reported in a slide-off accident around milepost 30 HWY 13 in Rio Blanco County on Thursday, January 4th around 6 p.m., however, Twitchell was not present when law enforcement arrived on the scene. The Rio Blanco Sheriff's Office discovered a single set of footprints leading from the vehicle to the highway and has continued to conduct extensive searches in the area.

Twitchell's cell phone was last pinged in Garfield County around mile marker 16 on Highway 13 in the early morning hours of Friday, January 5th.

At this time, Henry David Twitchell has been entered into the National Crime Information Center as a missing person. He is between 5'10"- 5'11", weighs approximately 200 pounds, and has blue eyes, and short brown hair. He does not have any tattoos. He is likely wearing the same green puffy jacket as seen in the attached photo of him fishing. Although he has facial hair in these photos, he is last known to be clean-shaven.

If anyone knows his whereabouts, please contact the Eagle County Sheriff's Office through dispatch at 970-479-2201, the Rio Blanco Sheriff's Office at 970-878-9600, or the Garfield County Sheriff's Office at 970-625-8095.

If you would like to remain anonymous, contact the Eagle County Crime Stoppers by submitting your tip online at www.p3tips.com, or send a mobile tip using the free 'P3 Tips' mobile app. If your tip leads to the arrest and indictment of any suspect involved, you could earn a CASH reward from the Eagle County Crime Stoppers.

Additional information will be released as it becomes available.

The mission of the Garfield County Sheriff's Office is to provide solutions for the people through professional, ethical and compassionate conduct.
