GARFIELD COUNTY, CO. –

On Tuesday March 5, 2024, students from the Roaring Fork and Colorado River Valleys gathered at the Spring Valley CMC Campus in Glenwood Springs. Attending Juniors and Seniors were able to meet and learn more about various career possibilities.

107 Eighth Street, Glenwood Springs, CO 81601    970-945-0453    970-945-6430 (fax)    www.garcosheriff.com

Students talked with “career providers” to learn what opportunities are available in our valley areas. The Expo provided booths showcasing professional and administrative opportunities, medical field careers, opportunities in retail markets, construction, fire-fighting and law enforcement along with other first responders and a myriad of other possibilities available for today’s youth as they move towards graduation.

The Garfield County Sheriff’s Office was present to discuss local opportunities available in law enforcement to the graduating high school senior as well as college courses that might move them in the direction of law enforcement or a related field.

Sergeant Bowen worked with Corporal Jenkins, Deputy Marquez and Deputy Burke talking to High School Juniors and Seniors from Aspen to De Beque answering questions and providing insight into a rewarding and challenging career in law enforcement.

No additional information will be released
